

Reportering & Reordering
by Jr. Papa's Money

You may not have met her, but in the paper you've spied her
A business journalist, economics excite her
I guess you might call her a RAVING DEBTEE WRITER

Her agriculture stories will make you shiver
Like that piece about the farm down by the river
It was then she was known as the WEIRD BEET RANT GIVER

She's a diffuse writer who considers each word
She makes language explode like you've never heard
So obviously she's a WITTIER VERBAGE NERD

She'll figure it out, this over-achiever
The anagrams here might once have deceived her
But clearly they spell BRIDGETT ERIN WEAVER
